

The Great Richmond

Richmond's Game Show for Trivia Lovers

What: The Great Richmond Trivia Bee, #RVATriviaBee, sponsored by Union Bank & Trust, and benefiting The READ Center, is Richmond's own live game show. It's a team-based competition for people who love words, vocabulary, pop culture, history, literature and showing off how smart they are. It's also a fundraiser for The READ Center, whose mission is to help adults with low-level literacy develop basic reading and communication skills so they can fulfill their roles as citizens, workers, and family members.

How does the game work? The game is open to everyone who wants to participate on a team of three. The teams will be competing in the Trivia Bee, but audience members will have the opportunity to play along. The winning team will be awarded the Trivia Bee cup, and bragging rights, but everyone who attends wins in the knowledge that you helped a local adult improve his/her literacy skills. There will also be a Team Name competition, so be creative!

Will there be food/drink? Teams and volunteers will be invited to a pre-game Reception, and light snacks and a cash bar will be available for audience members.

When: Wednesday, April 24, 2019. The team/volunteer reception begins at 6:00pm and the game runs from 7:00pm-9:00pm.

Where: The Hippodrome Theater, 528 N. 2nd Street, Richmond, VA 23219

Cost: The basic team registration fee is $500, and includes one team of 3 in the competition, invitation to the reception before the game, and a listing in the event program. For additional sponsorship opportunities, <https://readcenter.org/trivia-bee>. Trivia Bee audience tickets are $20.

How: You can register online or print off the registration form and mail/e-mail it to The READ Center at elizabeth@readcenter.org, 4915 Radford Avenue, Ste. 204, Richmond, VA 23230. Team space is limited, so register now to guarantee your spot!

Why: Trivia is fun, and everyone needs and deserves a literate life.
